

Troopers Arrest New Jersey Man on Burglary Charges – Wilmington

Wilmington- Delaware State Police have arrested 30-year-old Frederich Pattozzi (no photograph available) of Medford, NJ, on burglary and related charges.

On November 4, 2020, at approximately 2:27 a.m., Delaware State Police responded to Carriage House Liquors located at 3101 Concord Pike, Wilmington for a reported burglary. Troopers arrived on scene and learned the front glass window to the business was smashed. Responding Troopers observed a subject walking away from the business and made contact. The subject gave several false names during conversation with Troopers. Through investigation Troopers learned the subject, identified as Frederich Pattozzi was the suspect involved in the burglary, and was taken into custody without incident.

Pattozzi was transported to Troop 1 where he was charged with the following crimes:

- Attempted Burglary 1st Degree (Felony)
- Criminal Mischief Under $1,000 Damage
- Criminal Impersonation

Pattozzi was arraigned in the Justice of the Peace Court #11 and committed to Howard R. Young Correctional Institution on $3,000 secured bond.
